GENERAL DESCRIPTION

PHARMANEST is an International peer reviewed Journal aimed to provide platform for exchange of ideas that emerge out of the research work carried out either in academics or at industry. The language of Journal is English and articles will be accepted from any country provided that they are submitted in English language only. The articles should provide consolidated comprehensive information in a lucid way.

SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPT

Manuscript should be type written in MS Word, Times New Roman having font size 12 in double space on A4 size paper with 1.5 inch margin on all the sides. Manuscript has to be submitted along with filled in Copy Right Agreement Form (Download) duly signed by authors.

The manuscripts have to be sent to e-mail: pharmanest@gmail.com

All manuscripts are subjected to peer review and are of high quality will be published.

A confirmation about the acceptance of manuscript will be informed through e-mail to the corresponding author. After confirmation, corresponding author have to pay Rs 1000-00 (One Thousand Rupees only) for Indian authors, USD 50 (Fifty US Dollars only) for Foreign authors as processing fee. The amount shall be remitted online to the following account:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name of the Bank</th>
<th>State Bank of India</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Name of Account</td>
<td>Srinath Nissankararao</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Account Number</td>
<td>20028147477</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IFSC CODE</td>
<td>SBIN0000889</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Please send the scanned copy of the Bank counter foil to pharmanest@gmail.com
PREPARATION OF MANUSCRIPT

Manuscript has to be prepared in the specified format: Title page, Name of the author(s), Abstract, Keywords, Introduction, Materials and Methods, Results, Discussion and References.

Title page:
This page should consist of the appropriate title, names and addresses of authors along with contact details (Complete postal address, e-mail and Telephone number) of the corresponding author.

Abstract:
Abstract should contain not more than 200 words. The abstract should be concise and informative.

Key words:
A maximum of 5 key words must be given immediately below the abstract.

Introduction:
This component should consist of the rationale of the investigation making use of necessary literature.

Materials and Methods:
It is obvious to elaborate the experimental protocols that were employed in the study/investigation in this section. The information furnished should be clear and unambiguous.

Results:
As far as possible the results have to be given in the form of tables and/or figures/graphs with relevant explanation where necessary.

Discussion:
This part needs executive summary of the study in accordance with results.

REFERENCES

PHARMANEST Journal follows Vancouver Reference Style as mentioned below:

Print Sources

1. Book

   General format:

   Author(s). Title of book. Edition. City of publication: Publisher; Year of publication.

   Examples:

   Two authors with edition

One editor

Note:
- Include all authors/editors.
- Author’s name is reversed, use initials for first and middle names. Do not include comma after last name or periods between initials.
- Only capitalize the first word of the title and any proper nouns. Do not capitalize the first word of the subtitle.
- Include the state or country after the city of publication if the city is not well known.
- Do not include edition if it is the first edition.

2. Journal article

General format:

Author(s). Title of article. Abbreviated title of journal Year Month day of publication; volume number(issue number): page numbers.

Example:

Two authors, day of publication is not given

Note:
- Include all authors/editors.
- Author’s name is reversed, use initials for first and middle names. Do not include comma after last name or periods between initials.
- Only capitalize the first word of the title and any proper nouns. Do not capitalize the first word of the subtitle.
- Abbreviate month by using the first three letters of the month. No period following the abbreviation.
- Do not repeat page numbers.
  e.g. 125-9 instead of 125-129.
- Abbreviate journal title.

3. Newspaper article

General format:

Author. Title of article. Newspaper Title (Edition). Year Month day of publication; Sect. letter: page number (column number).

Example:

One author, final edition

Note:

- Include all authors/editors.
- Author’s name is reversed, use initials for first and middle names. Do not include comma after last name or periods between initials.
- Only capitalize the first word of the title and any proper nouns. Do not capitalize the first word of the subtitle.
- Abbreviate month by using the first three letters of the month. No period following the abbreviation.

Electronic Sources

1. Journal article from library subscription database

General format:

Author. Title of article. Abbreviated title of journal [Internet]. Year Month day of publication [cited Year Month Day];volume number(issue number):page numbers. Available from: URL

Example:

Eight authors, day of publication is not given

Note:

- Include all authors/editors.
- Author's name is reversed, use initials for first and middle names. Do not include comma after last name or periods between initials.
- Only capitalize the first word of the title and any proper nouns. Do not capitalize the first word of the subtitle.
- Abbreviate journal title.
- Abbreviate month by using the first three letters of the month. No period following the abbreviation.
- Do not repeat page numbers.
  e.g. 125-9 instead of 125-129.
- If URL ends in a forward slash, include period. If not, do not include period.

2. Newspaper article from library subscription database

- Use the print format and include elements that refer to the electronic version (in bold).

General format:

Author. Title of article. Newspaper Title [Internet]. (Edition). Year Month day of publication [cited Year Month Day];Sect. Location. Available from: URL
Example:

No author, final edition

Note:

- Include all authors/editors.
- Author’s name is reversed, use initials for first and middle names. Do not include comma after last name or periods between initials.
- Only capitalize the first word of the title and any proper nouns. Do not capitalize the first word of the subtitle.
- Abbreviate month by using the first three letters of the month. No period following the abbreviation.
- If URL ends in a forward slash, include period. If not, do not include period.

3. Electronic book from library subscription database

General format:

Author(s). Title of book [Internet]. Edition. City of publication: Publisher; Year of publication [cited Year Month Day]. Available from: URL

Example:

Two editors

Note:

- Include all authors/editors.
- Author’s name is reversed, use initials for first and middle names. Do not include comma after last name or periods between initials.
- Only capitalize the first word of the title and any proper nouns. Do not capitalize the first word of the subtitle.
- Include the state or country after the city of publication if the city is not well known.
- Do not include edition if it is the first edition.
- Abbreviate month by using the first three letters of the month. No period following the abbreviation.
- If URL ends in a forward slash, include period. If not, do not include period.
4. Website

- If you are not able to find all of the information identified in the general format, include only what is available from the source.

General format:

Author(s). Title of website [Internet]. City of publication: Publisher; Publication/copyright date(s) [updated Year Month Day; cited Year Month Day]. Available from: URL

Example:

No author, no updated date

Note:

- Include all authors/editors.
- Author’s name is reversed, use initials for first and middle names. Do not include comma after last name or periods between initials.
- If not author/editor, begin with title of the website.
- Only capitalize the first word of the title and any proper nouns. Do not capitalize the first word of the subtitle.
- Include the state or country after the city of publication if the city is not well known.
- Abbreviate month by using the first three letters of the month. No period following the abbreviation.
- If URL ends in a forward slash, include period. If not, do not include period.

5. Webpage or document from a website

- If you are not able to find all of the information identified in the general format, include only what is available from the source.

General format:

Title of homepage [Internet]. City of publication: Publisher; Publication/copyright date of homepage. Title of webpage or document; Year Month Day of publication of webpage or document [cited Year Month Day];[pagination of webpage or document]. Available from: URL

Example:

No author, no publication date

Note:

- Only capitalize the first word of the title and any proper nouns. Do not capitalize the first word of the subtitle.
- Include the state or country after the city of publication if the city is not well known.
- Abbreviate month by using the first three letters of the month. No period following the abbreviation.
- Pagination

  - Usually the webpage or document will be unnumbered. In this case, include “about” in the location/pagination statement and estimate the number of screens or pages:
    - e.g. [about 3 screens]
    - e.g. [about 5 p.]

- If URL ends in a forward slash, include period. If not, do not include period.

---

6. Entire blog

- NLM’s Citing Medicine does not provide an example for an entire blog.

- The following is based on International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE) Uniform Requirements for Manuscripts Submitted to Biomedical Journals: Sample References (http://www.nlm.nih.gov/bsd/uniform_requirements.html)

- If you are not able to find all of the information identified in the general format, include only what is available from the source.

General format:

Author(s). Title of blog [Internet]. City of publication: Publisher. Year Month Day of publication or copyright of blog - [cited Year Month Day]. Available from: URL

Examples:

One author, no city, copyright date

No author, no city of publication, publication date included

Note:

- Include all authors/editors.
- Author’s name is reversed, use initials for first and middle names. Do not include comma after last name or periods between initials.
- If not author/editor, begin with title of the blog.
- Only capitalize the first word of the title and any proper nouns. Do not capitalize the first word of the subtitle.
- Include the state or country after the city of publication if the city is not well known.
- Abbreviate month by using the first three letters of the month. No period following the abbreviation.
- If URL ends in a forward slash, include period. If not, do not include period.
7. Blog entry

- NLM’s Citing Medicine does not provide an example for a blog entry.

- The following is based on International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE) Uniform Requirements for Manuscripts Submitted to Biomedical Journals: Sample References (http://www.nlm.nih.gov/bsd/uniform_requirements.html)

- If you are not able to find all of the information identified in the general format, include only what is available from the source.

General format:

Author(s). Title of blog entry. Year Month Day of blog entry [cited Year Month Day]. In: Title of blog [Internet]. City of publication: Publisher. Year Month Day of publication or copyright of blog [-]. [pagination of blog entry]. Available from: URL

Example:

No author, no city of publication

Note:

- Include all authors/editors.

- Author’s name is reversed, use initials for first and middle names. Do not include comma after last name or periods between initials.

- If not author/editor, begin with title of the blog entry.

- Only capitalize the first word of the title and any proper nouns. Do not capitalize the first word of the subtitle.

- Include the state or country after the city of publication if the city is not well known.

- Abbreviate month by using the first three letters of the month. No period following the abbreviation.

- Pagination

  Usually the webpage or document will be unnumbered. In this case, include “about” in the location/pagination statement and estimate the number of screens or pages:

  e.g. [about 3 screens]

  e.g. [about 5 p.]

- If URL ends in a forward slash, include period. If not, do not include period.